

Early American Studies

An Interdisciplinary Journal

VOLUME 1, NUMBER 1 (SPRING 2003)

Contents

- Letter from the Editor v
- The Fabricated Region: On the Insufficiency of “Colonies”
for Understanding American Colonial History 1
WAYNE BODLE
Indiana University of Pennsylvania
- The Pennsylvania Difference:
Religious Diversity on the Delaware before 1683 28
EVAN HAEFELI
Tufts University
- “A Good Relationship, & Commerce”:
The Native Political Economy of the Arkansas River Valley 61
KATHLEEN DUVAL
McNeil Center for Early American Studies
- The Strangers’ Store:
Moral Capitalism in Moravian Bethlehem, 1753–1775 90
KATHERINE CARTÉ ENGEL
University of Wisconsin
- “Many Who Wandered in Darkness”:
The Contest over American National Identity, 1795–1798 127
MATTHEW RAINBOW HALE
Mississippi State University
- In Defense of Civil Society:
Irish Radicals in Philadelphia during the 1790s 176
MARGARET H. MCALEER
Library of Congress
- “Tending to Edify, Astonish, and Instruct”: Published Narratives of Spiritual Dreams and Visions in the Early Republic 198
ANN KIRSCHNER
University of Delaware

| Contents

Vox Populi: Spiritualism and George Washington's Postmortem Career ROBERT S. COX American Philosophical Society	230
New Books, New Men: City-Mysteries Fiction, Authorship, and the Literary Market PAUL ERICKSON University of Texas	273