

Early American Studies

An Interdisciplinary Journal

VOLUME 11, ISSUE 1 (WINTER 2013)

Special Issue:
Forming Nations, Reforming Empires:
Atlantic Polities in the Long Eighteenth Century

Contents

Special Issue Introduction

An Entangled World: Loyalties, Allegiances, and Affiliations
in the Long Eighteenth Century 1
JERUSHA WESTBURY AND ANELISE HANSON SHROUT

“Good and Kind Benefactors”: British Logwood Merchants and Boston’s Christ Church 15
ROSS A. NEWTON

“English Liberties” and German settlers in Colonial America:
The Georgia Salzburgers’ Conceptions of Community, 1730–1750 37
KAREN AUMAN

From Spain to the River Plate: Migratory Strategies of Spaniards
in the Eighteenth Century 55
MARIANA PÉREZ

The Poetics of Belonging in the Age of Enlightenment: Spiritual Metaphors of Being in Olaudah Equiano’s Interesting Narrative 72
REBECCA RUTLEDGE FISHER

On the Margins: The Mediating Function of Footnotes in Thomas
Hutchinson’s History of Massachusetts-Bay 98
EILEEN CHENG

The Caribs of St. Vincent and Indigenous Resistance during the Age of Revolutions. 117
JULIE CHUN KIM

Trans-Atlantic Anti-Jacobinism: Reaction and Religion JONATHAN DEN HARTOG	133
Competing Loyalties: Nationality, Church Governance, and the Development of an American Catholic Identity MARGARET WILSON GILLIKIN	146
New Nations, New Connections: Spanish American Privateering from the United States and the Development of Atlantic Relations DAVID HEAD	161
“Centripetal Attraction” in a Centrifugal World: The Pacifist Vision of Elihu Burritt MARGOT MINARDI	176
Imperial Uncertainties and Republican Conflicts: Archives, Diplomacy, and Historiography in Nineteenth-Century Chile ANDRÉS ESTEFANE	192