

Early American Studies
An Interdisciplinary Journal
VOLUME 12, ISSUE 3 (FALL 2014)

Special Issue:
Beyond the Binaries:
Critical Approaches to Sex and Gender in Early America

Contents

Beyond the Binaries in Early America: Special Issue Introduction RACHEL HOPE CLEVES	459
Sex and “Unsex”: Histories of Gender Trouble in Eighteenth-Century North America GRETA LAFLEUR	469
From The Scarlet Letter to Stonewall: Reading the 1629 Thomas(ine) Hall Case, 1978–2009 KATHRYN WICHELNS	500
Making Meaningful Bodies: Physical Appearance in Colonial Writings SHARON BLOCK	524
Fair Bosom/Black Beard: Facial Hair, Gender Determination, and the Strange Career of Madame Clofullia, “Bearded Lady” SEAN TRAINOR	548
“Indescribable Being”: Theological Performances of Genderlessness in the Society of the Publick Universal Friend, 1776–1819 SCOTT LARSON	576
Consecrated Merchants and Midnight Criers: Commercial Evangelicalism and a Jazz Theory of Gender Distinctions in Nineteenth-Century America T. R. NODDINGS	601

Cherokee “Two Spirits”: Gender, Ritual, and Spirituality in the Native South GREGORY D. SMITHERS	626
Transgender Identity at a Crossroads: A Close Reading of a “Queer” Story from 1857 ELIZABETH REIS	652
Consider the Source: The Man Who Thought Himself a Woman ELIZABETH REIS, ED.	666