

Early American Studies

VOLUME 13, ISSUE 3 (SUMMER 2015)

Contents

- From the Editor 511
C. DALLETT HEMPHILL
- A Flâneur* in Philly: Class, Gender, Race, and All That Jazz 512
BILLY G. SMITH AND MICHELLE MASKIELL
- Martha Bradstreet and the “Epithet of Woman”: A Story of Land, Libel, Litigation, and Legitimizing “Unwomanly” Behavior in the Early Republic 544
MICHAEL A. BLAAKMAN
- “The Spirit of Contradiction”: Wife Abuse in New England, 1780–1820 586
KELLY A. RYAN
- Toussaint, Gabriel, and Three Finger’d Jack: “Courageous Chiefs” and the “Sacred Standard of Liberty” on the Atlantic Stage 626
JENNA GIBBS
- Credit and Ethnicity in the Urban Atlantic World: Scottish Associational Culture in Colonial Philadelphia 661
K. TAWNY PAUL
- The Politics of the Pure Language in Seventeenth-Century Quakerism: Speech, Silence, and the Founding of Pennsylvania 692
NATALIE SPAR
- History, Memory, and the Indian Struggle for Autonomy in the Seventeenth-Century Hudson Valley 714
JASON R. SELLERS