

Early American Studies

An Interdisciplinary Journal

VOLUME 14, ISSUE 4 (FALL 2016)

Special Issue:
Kinship and Race in Early America

Contents

Introduction	617
BRIAN CONNOLLY AND DAWN PETERSON
Empire through Kinship: Rethinking Spanish-Apache Relations in Southwestern North America in the Late Eighteenth and Early Nineteenth Centuries	626
PAUL CONRAD
Family, Spiritual Kinship, and Social Hierarchy in Early California	661
ERIKA PÉREZ
Privileging Kinship: Family and Race in Eighteenth-Century Jamaica	688
DANIEL LIVESAY
Hill Town Touchstone: Reconsidering William Apess and Colrain, Massachusetts	712
MARGARET M. BRUCHAC
“Those people must have loved her very dearly”: Interracial Adoption and Radical Love in Antislavery Children’s Literature	749
BRIGITTE FIELDER	